

Project Skill-Up

Citizens of Sampson County that are directly related to the tobacco industry have the opportunity to receive free financial assistance for short-term training at SCC.

GOALS

*To update current skills and provide marketable skills
To provide skills assessments and short-term occupational training
To help individuals meet their educational goals and objectives*

Vocational and Technical Classes

Truck Driver Training
Masonry
Welding
Industrial Maintenance
Carpentry

Medical and Healthcare Classes

Certified Nursing Aide
Direct Care Worker
EKG Technician
Healthcare Billing and Coding
Phlebotomy

Computer Classes

Basic Computers
Keyboarding Skills
Computer
Empowerment
Microsoft Products
Certification

Who Is Eligible to Participate in the Skill-up Program?

You must be at least 18 years old or older, a resident of Sampson County and able to show how your income or family has been affected by changes in the tobacco industry.

If determined eligible for services under Project Skill-Up, you will be able to receive funds for tuition, books, and supplies.

How Can I Apply?

Call Sampson Community College Continuing Education Department at (910) 592-7176 Ext. 4014 to learn more about Project Skill-Up.

Sampson Community College was recently rewarded the PROJECT SKILL-UP Grant Program funded through the NC Tobacco Trust Fund Commission