

*SGA brings
Jabali Afrika
In Celebration of Black History Month
Tuesday, Feb. 26, 2008*

SGA members invited the members of Jabali Afrika to SCC in celebration of Black History Month. Students, faculty, and staff enjoyed the music, dancing, and fun at this event. The Sampson Early College High School students were also involved. If you did not get a chance to see the show, here are some highlights from the performance.

Jabali Afrika performs on the cafeteria stage in celebration of Black History Month.

SECHS Counselor, Chandra Grunden, joins the band on stage to learn some dance moves.

Stand back, and look at Chandra go!

Go Chandra! Go Chandra!

One SCC student shows her moves.

Watch this! Look out.....

SECHS students join in the fun and dancing.

SCC students were inspired by the music, so they started to get up and dance.

Some students were even invited on stage to play one of the band's authentic homemade drums.

Hope you enjoyed the show!!!
